Enrolment

Contact the Registrar of the Member Institution with whom you intend to study for enrolment and fee details.

Graduate Profile and Rationale

The Diploma of Christian Studies course is an undergraduate award that introduces students to Christian studies within higher education. Graduates will have acquired basic knowledge, skills, and values of Christian relevance to their professional, family, church, social, or personal lives, and have deepened their awareness of the nature and scope of theology and their affinity with it as a field of study within higher education.

It provides an opportunity to undertake some theological study with special focus on Christian Thought (including Biblical Studies, Theology, and Humanities in the Christian Tradition) or on Christian Practice (Christian Life and Ministry). The special focus is achieved by completing a sub-major in the area of interest (see Academic Regulations section 2.1).

Course Outcomes

Knowledge

Graduates will have:

- technical and theoretical knowledge and concepts with introductory knowledge in Biblical Studies and Theology;
- wider knowledge of the theological disciplines generally that will form the basis for further learning.

Skills

Graduates will have cognitive, communication, and technical skills in a theologically-related body of knowledge, so that they are able to:

- identify, analyse, and act on theological information from a range of foundational sources;
- express ideas and perspectives in theology;
- communicate theologically-related knowledge, skills and ideas to others.

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

Graduates will have the ability to:

- demonstrate and understanding of theological knowledge by applying it in their professional, family, church, social or personal lives;
- perform technical operations of some complexity in relation to Christian living, taking personal responsibility for them;
- exercise initiative and judgment in reflecting on issues of Christian living, including some ability to do so with others.
