Graduate Profile and Rationale

The Graduate Certificate in Church Planting is designed for those possessing an AQF Level 7 undergraduate degree in any field who wish to acquire transferable knowledge and skills in Church Planting as part of their continuing professional development for employment and further learning.

The Graduate Certificate in Church Planting focuses on building capacity for people involved in the development of new churches.

Course Outcomes

Knowledge

Graduates will have:

- specialised theoretical and technical knowledge related to the practice of Christian mission particular to the development of new churches

Skills

Graduates will demonstrate specialised cognitive and technical skills in church planting within a ministry-related body of knowledge, so that they are able to independently:

- analyse critically, evaluate, and apply information to complete a range of activities associated with leadership in the context of a new church initiative;
- analyse, generate and provide solutions to complex problems in the development of a new church;
- transmit church planting-related knowledge, skills and ideas to specialist and non-specialist audiences.

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

Graduates will have the ability to:

- apply knowledge and skills in a way that demonstrates autonomy, well developed judgment, adaptability, and responsibility as leaders in the development of new churches;
- plan and execute a research or field-based project in an area of church planting

The Unit Learning Outcomes of any units taken into the award contribute to the attainment of the Discipline Learning Outcomes and the Generic Learning Outcomes of the AQF level, as well as the Graduate Attributes of the Award.
