Graduate Profile and Rationale

The Graduate Certificate in Counselling is designed for those who hold an undergraduate AQF 7 qualification in counselling or related disciplines, who wish to pursue a graduate qualification in counselling to enhance their professional work. Graduates will be equipped with advanced theoretical knowledge and practice based counselling skills. Graduates will have added particular transferable knowledge and skills in counselling to enhance their work in Christian ministry and mission.

Course Outcomes

Knowledge

Graduates will have:

- specialised theoretical and technical knowledge related to the practice of counselling which are transferable to a variety of complex client contexts;
- an understanding of the principles of inquiry and methods applicable to counselling theory and their application to real-world counselling practice.

Skills

Graduates will demonstrate specialised cognitive and technical skills in counselling, so that they are able independently to:

- review and synthesize counselling information and identify and reflect on complex client contexts;
- think critically and evaluate complex ideas related to the care of clients
- demonstrate an understanding of theoretical concepts in the Pastoral Counselling sub-discipline;
- transmit counselling knowledge, skills and ideas to a variety of audiences.

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

Graduates will have the ability to:

- make high level, independent judgments related to a range of issues pertaining to counselling theory and practice.
